JOB PRINTING.

Done in a style to give satisfaction to the most fastidious, at the Belmont CHRONICLE Office. All orders promptly attended to.

27 Transient advertisements and job-work must be paid for in advance.

All communications and advertisements must be handed in before 10 o'clock on Wednesday, or be delayed another week.

MASONIC CELEBRATION.

The brethren of Moriah Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons at Jacobsville will celebrate the coming anniversary of St. John the Baptist, on Saturday, the 23d of June.

A good speaker will be in attendance. The lunch will be well prepared.

By order of the Committee.

The travelers will rarely find more pleasant and comfortable quarters than the Norton House at St. Clairsville, kept by Mr.
J. K. Norton, on Main Street. His house is good and well furnished, his table well supplied, and he and all about the house are assiduous in their attention to guests. We would invite our readers who visit St. Clairville to put themselves in charge of Mr. Norton. He has a merit we have not noticed, and we should not forget it. He kept a temperance house long before he was compelled by law. You therefore, find him now cheerful, good-natured and prosperous.

[Wheeling Gazette.]

Everybody in this neighborhood knows the above to be literally true. Travelers feel at home with Mr. Norton.

The Messrs. Fawcett & Day, of Belmont have associated with them in their business Mr. H. H.
Day, and the firm is now known by the name of FAWCETT & DAY. They have a store on the line of the Road, and one at the old stand. We speak for them the patronage of the denizens of Goshen township and the country round about, for they are emgetic, industrious, and competent to push through a heavy business.

We have some little report to give from the Wool Market, at last, as wills be by refererred to our Commercial Record. Prices look favorable thus far, but it is hard to tell how the new crop will rate.
Lay not before our sight.

Whilst here and there the showers,
That lay along the shores
Disclosed the holly guard.

The alarm of fire on Saturday was caused by the dwelling house of Mr. DARRAH on Marietta st., taking fire. No damage done, as a couple of ladies had the fire extinguished before the incendine—whose business it is to put out fires—arrived. We cannot be too careful with fire this dry weather.

We regret to learn of the death of the wife of Judge Welch, of this township. She died at 3 o'clock on Monday morning, after a long and severe illness.
She was a good woman, a Christian, a servant of the living God."

M. J. W. GLOVER, Recorder.

as we are on the R. & D. we can offer you the best prices in the market.

We can refer persons in want of a house-painter to Mr. JOHN FORD, who is always at hand with brush and paint pot, to renovate a rusty house, Send him, and clean up.

Housecleaning time has come again,
The household of the year...

With things 'bout home all upside down!

Oh, dear! oh, dear! oh!

By the way, while the inside of the house is topeytury, is the very time to have the outside repainted.

NEW YORK Wool Market.

May 17th, 1855.

The market is void of animation; the disposition to transact manufacturing is not general, and the business doing is altogether of a conservative character. We are told that the market is not very active, and that the price of wool is not very high.

It is to be hoped that the market house will be soon filled with activity, and that the price of wool will be raised.
